Five groups of animals

Read this first. Then answer the questions underneath.

Animals with a backbone are sorted into five groups.

Fish live in water and breathe through gills.

Amphibians, such as frogs, live partly in water and partly on land.

Reptiles, such as lizards and snakes, have dry scaly skin.

Birds have feathers, two legs and a beak.

Mammals have hair or fur, and feed their young on milk. A human is a mammal.

1. How do fish breathe?

The sentence about fish tells you.

2. What kind of skin do reptiles have?

Two words describe it.

3. Name two things birds have.

Three things are listed.

4. What do mammals feed their young on?

Look at the last group.

SAMPLE PAGES

You have read a few pages. The pack is longer.

What you are holding is a short sample, taken from different parts of the pack so that you can see how a week is planned and what a child is actually asked to do, before you decide.

The complete pack, and the rest of the academic materials, are on our website: schemes of work for a parent teaching at home, and practice packs for the skills children get stuck on.
