- What this semester builds, unit by unit
- Twelve weekly pages, one lesson on each
- Key terms to write in your own words
- Evidence to find and record
- Four end of unit reviews
- An end of semester self assessment against the curriculum
- A record sheet for the teacher

The Striving Muslim Academy

Name _____ Class _____

Built on the Academy's own Islamic Education Curriculum. Nothing else is needed to use it.

Unit 1 review

Notes shut. Pencil first, then mark your own work in a second colour. What you had to correct is the point.

1. Name the three kinds of word in Arabic with two examples of each.

2. Identify the mubtada and khabar in a verse your teacher gives.

3. Label the fi'l, fa'il and maf'ul in three sentences.

4. Separate five sentences into nominal and verbal, and say how you knew.

5. Build five correct sentences of each kind from your own vocabulary.

THIS UNIT WAS FOR THESE THREE

- ☐ Separate a nominal from a verbal sentence on sight
- ☐ Identify mubtada and khabar in a Qur'anic verse already memorised
- ☐ Build five correct sentences of each kind, from my own vocabulary

Tick only what you can do without help. These are the Academy's own outcomes for the unit, and they are what is actually being tested.

For the teacher

A student who cannot read the script fluently will fail this unit and every unit after it. Settle that at registration, not here. If it was missed, move them to the Qur'an track this week rather than at the end of term.

Unit 2 review

Notes shut. Pencil first, then mark your own work in a second colour. What you had to correct is the point.

1. Make three nouns definite in three different ways.

2. Form the dual and sound plurals of three given nouns.

3. State the case of every noun in a short verse, and why.

4. Explain what the case endings tell a reader that word order does not.

5. Find a dual and a sound plural in a memorised surah.

THIS UNIT WAS FOR THESE THREE

- ☐ Make any noun definite or indefinite correctly
- ☐ Form the dual and sound plurals of a given noun
- ☐ State the case of a noun in a short verse, and why

Tick only what you can do without help. These are the Academy's own outcomes for the unit, and they are what is actually being tested.

For the teacher

This unit is where students start guessing endings. Require the reason every time, even when the answer is right, or the guessing becomes a habit that lasts four semesters.

Unit 3 review

Notes shut. Pencil first, then mark your own work in a second colour. What you had to correct is the point.

1. Write the detached pronouns in a full table.

2. Attach a pronoun to a noun and to a verb and explain the difference.

3. Explain an idafah from a memorised surah, with both parts marked.

4. Find a demonstrative and a relative pronoun in memorised surahs.

5. Translate a short verse using only what you have been taught.

THIS UNIT WAS FOR THESE THREE

- ☐ Attach a pronoun to a noun and to a verb correctly
- ☐ Explain an idafah found in a surah I have memorised
- ☐ Translate a short verse using only what I have been taught

Tick only what you can do without help. These are the Academy's own outcomes for the unit, and they are what is actually being tested.

For the teacher

The idafah is the single most useful construction in this semester, because it unlocks most of the short surahs. Spend any spare lesson on it.

SAMPLE PAGES

You have read a few pages. The book is longer.

What you are holding is a short sample, taken from different parts of the book so that you can see the teaching, the exercises and the standard of the Arabic before you decide.

The complete book, and the rest of the set, are on our website. Nine subjects, four semesters each: a textbook that teaches the week and a workbook that examines it.
