Unit 1 review

Notes shut. Pencil first, then mark your own work in a second colour. What you had to correct is the point.

1. Recite hadith 1 with its narrator and collectors, and explain its rule.

2. Give the three questions of hadith 2 and their answers.

3. Name the five of hadith 3 in order.

4. Explain what each of the five obliges, not only what it names.

5. Give one situation from your own week that hadith 1 judges.

THIS UNIT WAS FOR THESE THREE

- ☐ Recite the first three ahadith from memory, accurately
- ☐ Explain what each one obliges, not only what it says
- ☐ Give one situation from my own week that the first hadith judges

Tick only what you can do without help. These are the Academy's own outcomes for the unit, and they are what is actually being tested.

For the teacher

Hear all three aloud, individually, before marking any page. The outcome is memorisation, and a workbook cannot test it.

Unit 2 review

Notes shut. Pencil first, then mark your own work in a second colour. What you had to correct is the point.

1. Recite hadith 4 and give the stages it describes.

2. State the two conditions of an accepted deed, with the text for each.

3. Recite hadith 6 and mark its three parts.

4. Define the doubtful matters and say what a Muslim does with them.

5. Apply hadith 6 to a case where the ruling is genuinely unclear.

THIS UNIT WAS FOR THESE THREE

- ☐ State what makes an act of worship accepted, with its two conditions
- ☐ Define the doubtful matters and say what a Muslim does with them
- ☐ Apply hadith 6 to a case where the ruling is genuinely unclear

Tick only what you can do without help. These are the Academy's own outcomes for the unit, and they are what is actually being tested.

For the teacher

Watch for the student who uses hadith 6 to avoid learning. The hadith tells a person to leave doubt, not to stop asking what the ruling is.

Unit 3 review

Notes shut. Pencil first, then mark your own work in a second colour. What you had to correct is the point.

1. Recite hadith 7 and name the five parties, with what each obliges.

2. State the rule for the commanded and the rule for the forbidden, and why they differ.

3. Recite hadith 10 and explain the traveller it describes.

4. Explain the connection between lawful earning and answered du'a.

5. Give the narrator and collector of each hadith in this unit.

THIS UNIT WAS FOR THESE THREE

- ☐ Explain sincerity towards each of the five named parties
- ☐ State the rule for what is commanded and what is forbidden, and the difference
- ☐ Explain the connection between lawful earning and answered du'a

Tick only what you can do without help. These are the Academy's own outcomes for the unit, and they are what is actually being tested.

For the teacher

The five parties in hadith 7 are where students give five versions of the same sentence. Insist that each is different, and do not accept vague words.

SAMPLE PAGES

You have read a few pages. The book is longer.

What you are holding is a short sample, taken from different parts of the book so that you can see the teaching, the exercises and the standard of the Arabic before you decide.

The complete book, and the rest of the set, are on our website. Nine subjects, four semesters each: a textbook that teaches the week and a workbook that examines it.
